To whom it may concern:

We have had the extreme pleasure of working with Shahab Zargari on a number of projects as a director and an editor, including award-winning film Out of Time to several seasons of web-series Up Up and Away to festival favorite The Crystal Crypt, the adaptation of Phillip K. Dick's short story of the same name. Shahab is a consummate professional in any position and he always strives to do his job to a level even greater than expected. Regardless of the turnaround timeframe, budget, and project parameters, he always brings his cheerful attitude and high quality to the team, he is quick to communicate and is great with deadlines, and his proficiency in many areas of production elevates everything he works on. We can't recommend him highly enough and know that he would be an invaluable asset to any production or team.

With our highest regards,
